

Pavel Hrica

Senior manager at Pontis Foundation

Bratislava, Slovakia

Jury Member

Georgia's Responsible Business Awards "Meliora" – 2018

Pavel worked as a program director of the Slovak Pontis Foundation for 10 years. He managed a team dealing with a corporate responsibility and philanthropy. He covered managing of 29 corporate funds and corporate foundations. He co-founded the Association of Corporate Foundations in Slovakia. His team was responsible for organizing the Via Bona Award – a most prestigious CSR award in Slovakia.

Companies used to ask him to give them advice in CSR topics and strategic giving. He has run more projects of the Pontis Foundation like Our Town (one of the biggest employee volunteering events in Europe), a Great Country (a giving portal), Forum on Corporate Philanthropy, etc.

He is a senior manager and trainer of the Pontis Foundation. He is a founder and executive director of the Way Out – an organization dealing with extreme poverty.

